BUY NICKELODIUM

Sam Rosenberg and A. A. Gottschall Proprietors

Moving Picture Show will Continue Under Management of Harry Hoover.

A deal was consummated this morning whereby Sam Rosenberg and A. A. Gottschall, two prominent young business men, purchased the Nickelod. lum, a moving picture show located in the Leffler block on South Main street. The new owners have already taken over the establishment.

Charles Beaumont, the former proprietor, is preparing to leave for Ann Arbor, Mich., where he will enter the same line of business. Walter Hoover, of this city, has been installed as manager of the Nickelod. lum and W. C. Berry will be the operator and electrician.

Messrs. Rosenberg and Gottschall state that they will continue in the same line of business as before the purchase was made, and the picture show will be entirely in the hands of the manager.

Druids Take Notice.

All Druids are requested to meet Monday at 12:30 o'clock to attend the funeral of the late John Schneider.

NEW SOCIETY ORGANIZED

Known as the Florence Richards Union.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Mrs. Enoch Knackel Chosen as President.

Marion's Third Branch of W. C. T. U. is Launched at Wesley M. E. Church.

Marion's third branch of the W. C. T. U. was organized at Wesley M. E. church, Friday afternoon, under the name of Florence Richards union. The society was named in honor of Mrs. Florence Richards, a prominent W. C. T. U. worker of Leipsio, Ohio.

Previous to the organization of the society, an interesting address on about ten minutes length was given by Mayor Scherff, who was present in response to an invitation from the ladies.

To his feminine hearers the city's executive divulged the fact that when he first came to Marion he was employed as bartender in a North End saloon.

"I know from actual experience the many evils of this traffic," said the mayor. He commended the W. C. T. U. for its excellent work and said that he feels that the prayers of the Marion women who are interested in temperance have helped him greatly in his work of reform here. He expressed pleasure at learning that a new society was to be formed.

The mayor said that while performing his official duties he has found a great many opportunities to do some good work among the men who are brought before him. He exhibited ten pledges signed by tapers who were arrested for drunkenness and whom he induced to promise that they would become total abstainers.

The new society starts with 55 charter members, of whom 10 are honorary. Practically all of the members live in West Marion. The work of organization was conducted by Mrs. Eva Fletcher, president of the Frances Willard society. She conducted the opening devotional services, and after prayer by Rev. Elmer Hoch, superintendent of the proposed Door of Hope rescue home, Mayor Scherff gave his talk.

The officers chosen are Mrs. Enoch Knackel, president; Mrs. T. J. Spragg, secretary and Mrs. John Marley, treasurer.

The first regular meeting will be held next Thursday evening, when vice presidents will be chosen and department superintendents appointed. The society will meet once a month.

"YELLOWSTONE PARK" WAS THE SUBJECT

Of Interesting Lecture Given by E. C. Culver

Large Audience Present to Hear the History of the Greatest Spot on Earth.

A fair sized audience assembled in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last night to enjoy the "Yellowstone Park" lecture by E. C. Culver of the Northern Pacific private car. The lecturer told of the great national park as he had seen it in his twenty years' experience there while driving a stage coach over the Park highways.

The lecture was illustrated with a fine line of stereopticon slides and moving picture scenes, the subjects of which were only recently obtained by E. B. Thompson in a trip through the park.

The moving pictures and slides of the wild animals were especially interesting and were undoubtedly the most original pictures ever seen in the city. Moving pictures of geysers in action were also thrown on the canvas presenting a very pleasing scene.

Mr. Culver proved an exceptionally clever lecturer. He told the story of description in very simple language and it was so plain that the smallest child could understand. He described the geysers wild game, hot springs, tufted terraces and pools, tumbling rivers, splendid mountains and the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone river as the driver of a coach would explain them to passengers. He spoke in an interesting manner of the history of the Park and drew upon his own reminiscence in entertaining his attentive audience.

The educational value of the lecture was great and was successful in conveying a correct idea of the marvelous natural wonder, the greatest spot in the world, broadening the intellect and imparting a deep impression upon the minds of all who were so fortunate to be present.

"MUDDY" MISSED AT HEADQUARTERS

Receives a Communication From Mayor Scherff

Confined to Her Room by Illness Her Many Friends About City are Thinking About Her.

The many personal friends of Mrs. Matilda Thew, known at the state as "Muddy", will read with interest the following letter penned by His Honor, Mayor Scherff. Mother Thew has been confined to her room by illness and the Mirror office is only one of the half hundred places where the noble woman has been missed during her illness.

Her boys in Marion, Delaware and Columbus are glad to know that she is recovering and sincerely trust in a very short time she will be able to resume her work. At the request of "Muddy" the following letter is published and will then be sent to her friends at Delaware and Columbus.

Marion, Ohio, April 12, 1907.

Mrs. Matilda Thew, City.

My Dear Muddy:—I write you these few lines to assure you that the Mayor and the police have not forgotten you nor your deeds of kindness that you have almost daily bestowed. We express here with our sympathy and affection in this your present bodily affliction. It grieves us not to see you regularly making the round in the work of love you so much enjoy and to which you seem to be especially called. But we know that God sustains and strengthens you daily and that he will keep you in the work until he has another ready to continue the same. Your work is bearing fruit and will continue to do so long after you are in the Glory World.

For your encouragement as a W. C. T. U. permit me to say that I hold the pledges of ten old and young drinkers who have signed during the month of March and as this is about a fair average per month you see that your wishes and work is being carried on though you are forced to be absent. May God's richest blessings attend you and may you soon be able to again be out among your friends, I am,

Yours Very Truly,
LOUIS SCHERFF, Mayor.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

To Form a Brigade of About Ten Men.

Prosecutor Clark, Solicitor Donithen and Alderman Gorton are Already for the Workout.

Just for the fun of the thing, a number of prominent local business and professional men say that they intend getting out on the streets of the city and doing two days of hard labor, in compliance with the new road tax law. They admit that it would be an easy matter for each of them to plank down $3 and avoid doing the work, but they think that the exercise will do them good, and there would be no limit to the good time which result from a bunch of good fellows putting in a couple of days at street cleaning.

If nine other men in my ward will agree to get out and do the work," said Prosecuting Attorney Clark, Friday, "I will make the tenth man who will put in the two days."

The prosecutor, however, would have an advantage over the majority of his friends. He has put in many a day at hard labor on his father's farm near LaRue, and even since being elected to office frequently drops over on the old home-place to take a whirl at pitching hay or some other harmless pastime.

This street-cleaning stunt would be mere boy's play for the energetic prosecutor. At the close of the two days' struggle, when the rest of the bunch would be frothing at the mouth and making a noise like the exhaust of a gasoline engine, Clark would be smiling blandly and calling for more.

City Solicitor Donithen, who lives down in the same ward with the prosecutor, and who, by the way, is another country-bred citizen, says that he is willing to join the white wings for a period of two days and he thinks that there will be little trouble in filling out the quota of ten which Clark demands. It is said that Councilman Gorton is interesting himself in the movement and is willing to get his broad-gauge shovel out for a couple of days.

Whether the agitators of the idea will lose their spirit of enthusiasm about the time they get their notices from the road superintendents, is a matter of conjecture.

EPWORTH CHURCH LADIES' SOCIETY

Holds Monthly Session Friday Afternoon.

United Mission Study Class Readers Program at the Presbyterian Church.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of Epworth M. E. church was held at the church yesterday at 2 o'clock. After transacting the regular business of the society, arrangements were completed for holding what is to be known as "Ye Olden Time's singin' skule. The entertainment will be very novel and will be held in the church auditorium on Friday evening April 19. The treasurer of the society reported at the meeting that $65 had been realized on the annual Easter supper, the amount to be placed in the parsonage fund.

The United Mission Study class held its regular monthly meeting in the church parlors of the Presbyterian church yesterday evening. The attendance was good and the session proved an interesting and profitable one.

The meeting was opened with devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. B. C. Platt. Under the instruction of Mrs. Leeka, an old time spelling school was conducted in which the members were called upon to spell the names of islands and divisions of islands and names in general which will come up during the year in the study of foreign missions. Miss Anna Fite also taught a class in geography which a study of the various missionary provinces was made. A general discussion of various missionary topics concluded the evening's program.

SHIPPED TO MARION

Three Cleveland Manufacturers Entire Lines Suits and Skirts—Just Bought by a Marion Firm at Tremendous Price Concessions

Probably the largest single deal in women's ready-to-wear garments ever made in this city was closed in Cleveland the past week, when D. A. Frank & Co. purchased outright the entire factory stocks of suits and skirts of three large manufacturers who had enormous accumulations of the choicest garments on hand and were willing to sell at very small figures.

The number of suits and skirts run many times into the hundreds and gives the Marion women an opportunity to choose from the largest selection Marion has ever before seen. Incidentally the prices are surely the lowest ever named in this city.

For instance, a fine all wool black Panama suit, nicely trimmed and made, which sold early for $19.75, is now marked $9.95.

A very select imported chiffon Panama suit which sold at Easter time for $25.00 now goes for $12.50 while hundreds elegant voile, silk and other suits which possess a retail worth of $30.00 up to $50.00 go at $15.00 and $19.75.

Black chiffon Panama skirts in the newest models that cost wholesale $7.50 to $12.50 are now marked $4.95 and $5.95.

This store invites the closest inspection, it courts the investigation of styles and values, believing that when one store owns the right goods at from 40 to 50c on the dollar that under-selling on its part is not a mere fancy, but a settled fact. The sale commenced Saturday.
